Evangelistic Committee of the Messiah Young Peoples' Christian Society:

We humbly beg to submit the following report of work done and visits made up until the present date.

During this period no request came to us either from the visiting committee or others for calls to be made or persons to be visited, yet as we saw needs and had time personal work was done and families visited in their homes. We had the opportunity of making four home calls. No record was kept of individuals approached or dealt with on or around the school premises.

We were very courteously received and at all times were shown due respect and kindness.

One who has fallen away and seemed very little influenced by our efforts should have the united prayers of all.

With prayers in and for the work, we are,

Yours, the Committee.

Bro. & Sister Geo. Haagen, Bro. Lester Myers, Sr. Mabel Nye.

June 9, 1914

Messiah Young Peoples' Christian society,

Greeting: The year which is about to close has found many places for our services. Many families would have needed our visits which did not receive them, because of our lack of time. We are glad to report having visited Sisters Kilmore, Bucher, Kroll, Kitzmiller and Bro. Simon Hess, to whom the society has paid $25. As a general rule we received a hearty reception, but much work remains to be done. Definite visiting needs to be done. Many are under conviction in our own town and surrounding community, but are unwilling to go through.

We hope that if any good has been done through our weak efforts God's grace may accompany it.

(Signed) Virgie F. Lehman.

We, the members of the Evangelistic Committee, report that three visits have been made in behalf of the work, outside of the school circle.

Several more have been contemplated, but because of inclement weather and lack of opportunity, they have not yet been made.

We are glad to feel that God is in the work and is able and does help us. Some have said they know they should be Christians, but to make the start is the trouble which takes the Grace of God. We therefore ask your prayers for us and the work.

Yours in His service,

4. Report of the Visiting Committee:

The sentiment of this committee tonight is, - "The summer is ended, Oh God! and the harvest forever past." and we would add, what have we done?

One Sunday afternoon two members of the committee made an effort to visit a home but were unsuccessful in meeting the desired parties. Since then nothing has been done. It is true that the committee being composed of the student body, are busy, but that should be no excuse us, for the work is before us and must be done and therefore everyday duties should not crowd out our Christian duties toward our fellow-men. We, as a committee are intensely ashamed of our neglect and our firm determination and fixed resolve is to do our full duty henceforth, if it is seen fit to replace us on this committee, or any other committee of this Young Peoples' Society.
