How wonderfully our God answers prayer!
From what seemed almost a certain deficit near the close of the year, we bring this report, showing a comfortable balance. As the need was made known, through the channel of the Visitor, you have responded most generously. We thank God that so many hearts were touched with the presentation of this need. Even since making up this report of offerings received until December 31, 1951, there has been a continuous flow of offerings during the first half of January. As we all mind God, I am sure the needs shall be met.
—Carl J. Ulery, Treasurer.

God's Love Mission, Detroit, Michigan

"If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." II Chronicles 7:14.

We found this Scripture fulfilled in our revival which began October 7 and lasted until October 28. Brother Marshall Winger labored with us as evangelist expecting to leave October 21, but because of the rising revival tide it was decided to continue another week. Brother Winger stayed two more nights and then was forced to leave, and Brother Hock preached the remaining nights. The truth was preached by these men with no uncertain sound. God marvelously met with us in our daily 5 a.m. and 1 p.m. prayer meetings. The Lord answered prayer in giving us souls at the altar almost every night. He gave us an unusual outpouring of His Holy Spirit the last Sunday morning of the revival. Brother Hock gave a short talk to the Sunday School, the Spirit fell on the people, and 32 boys, girls, young people, and adults went to the altar and wept before the Lord. One little boy cried aloud and pounded the altar rail, under his load of condemnation. A mother, backslidden for many years, was saved that morning and her daughter came to the Lord that night. Pray that the father of that home may get saved, for he is a hindrance to their progress.

Our Love Feast was held the second Sunday of the revival. This was truly a season of precious fellowship for the saints. About forty took part in this service. Bishop Carl G. Stump and Bishop Henry Schneider were with us for this occasion.

Brother and Sister Hock and Sister Ruth Deihl attended the Michigan State Council at Carland, on November 2 and 3.

We enjoyed the ministry of Brother Emmanuel Rohrer, West Milton, Ohio, on November 10 and 11. We were also happy to have Brother William Engle, Dayton, Ohio, with us for our Rally Day on November 25. The children will long remember his interesting object talk.

Brother Martin Bass, of the Nazarene Church, was with us December 26 through December 30. His teaching ministry and ability to dig out deep spiritual truths proved a help to those who heard him.

We felt that God singly blessed our Christmas Program on the evening of December 23. We endeavored to present a challenge to the hearers to give themselves as a gift to Christ, for He gave Himself for our Redemption. Nearly 170 were present for this Program.

The assistance of Sister Ruth Heise, from Fordwich, Canada, for a couple months is greatly appreciated by the Mission Staff.

Sister Hock was called to her home at Chambersburg, on December 18, on account of her father's serious illness. He passed away on Christmas evening.

Brother Hock has been visiting, in the hospital, two brothers, young married men, who are polio cases. Through prayer and faith they are recovering rapidly, to the amazement of the doctors. To God be all the glory!

It Is Generally Understood

THAT people never criticize a corpse.

THAT God loves a fighter—in a good cause.

THAT man without enemies is nobody.

THAT lofty ideals often live in a lowly place.

THAT character is what a man is—in the dark.

THAT a man is known by the company he does not keep.

THAT there is a difference between spiritual progress and a religious hurrah.

THAT people who succeed in these days are like postage stamps—they stick till they get there.

THAT a Christian who waits for an introduction to a stranger in a church is too nice for anything.—Evangelical Friend.

Buffalo, New York

Greetings in Jesus' name. This is the place for weather, and we have all kinds of it. November came in with a bang. The balmy October weather was suddenly knocked out with a thundering blizzard when the calendar turned to the first days of November. With the whirling of snow that disrupted traffic there were flashes of lightning and rumblings of thunder that made people wonder what was coming. One bolt struck a high brick chimney not far from us and tore a two-foot hole in the side. This was not on the weather man's agenda; neither is the Coming of Christ. Was this one of the signs of His coming? Some people think so. At least, it makes us conscious that the time is short, and we should be doing more to get the Gospel out to those who have not yet tasted its joy and blessedness.

Our Sunday School has been moving along in the 80's and 90's with a few special occasions in the 100's. They are a wonderful group with unlimited possibilities, bursting at the seams to find expression for the pent-up energies within them. They love to sing the choruses and to have part in the program.

The Christmas program brought out the parents of many of the children. The children did their parts very well, and they were thrilled when they received their candy and orange and other presents.

The Gospel Team from Grantham College gave us a very acceptable Thanksgiving service. We were so happy to have them with us for the Thanksgiving dinner and we all thoroughly enjoyed the fellowship around the table with the feast of good things of earth. Come again.

One of our younger members was taken to the hospital on November 11. There was much concern and prayer for him while his life was hanging in the balance. God has marvelously kept him, and by last reports he is improving. Put him on your prayer list and pray earnestly for his restoration to health again.

October 22 to November 4 Brother Percy Cassel was with us for special meetings. Several were at the altar and received help from the Lord.

It was necessary to rewire the Mission building. This work was done during October and eliminated a number of serious fire hazards. The expense for this was met from funds left the mission from the Margaret Carver estate.

One evening before Christmas, a can drove up loaded with home-canned goods from Clarence Center. You should have been here when the boxes were carried in. It would have thrilled your heart to hear the exclamations of, "Look at this!" as some of the beautiful cans were pulled out for inspection. "Well, bless their hearts!" as more boxes were brought in and stacked up. It was a beautiful array when the cans were all arranged on the shelves in the cellar. May God abundantly bless the givers and fill their hearts with the joy of heaven. But the proof is in the eating, and how delicious and satisfying. To say a big Thank You is putting it weakly. Our hearts were touched and we just thanked God on our knees for His blessings to us through these kind friends. God bless every one.

The Barber And The Bishop

A BARBER, finding he had a bishop in his chair, after professionally enveloping his customer in the usual white sheet, thought he would conduct the conversation on the proper ecclesiastical and episcopal lines. So as he started clipping he asked suddenly: "Do you believe in consecration, sir?"

"Consecration?" asked the Bishop, "what do you mean?"

"Oh-h, you ought to know what I mean, sir; I was consecrated myself once, but it never did me any good! I never got anything out of it."

"You were consecrated?" said the Bishop. "Look here, don't you mean you were confirmed? You mean, 'confirmation,' not 'consecration,' surely?"

"Yes, of course I do, sir," laughed the barber; "my mistake, sir; I meant confirmation."

"Tell me about it," said the Bishop.

"Well, I was a boy at the time and I said to another schoolmate, 'Let's get confirmed, 'cos we'll get a half holiday' so we got confirmed."

"And did you get your half holiday?"

"Oh, yes."

"Then," said the Bishop, "don't you tell me that you didn't get anything out of it?"

"No, but I mean I didn't get anything that you would expect," protested the barber, still clipping away at the back.

"What did you expect?"

The poor barber was nonplussed. He had evidently expected nothing, and that is exactly what he had got.

"Now, listen," said the Bishop, "confirmation means strengthening. It should be the strengthening or confirming of one's Christian faith and spiritual experience. But you can't confirm what doesn't exist. If you haven't got Christian faith you can't confirm it!"

"Oh-h-h!" said the barber, beginning at last to see the implications of the term.

"I say," said the Bishop, "are you going to heaven?"

"Going to heaven?" echoed the rather startled barber, "why, of course I'm going to heaven! Why shouldn't I go to heaven?"

"Well, why should you?"

"H'm; I'm as good as any other man," said the barber. "I've never done anybody any harm. An' I've always done my best."

"Is that all you have to say? For, if so, I'm afraid you haven't a dog's chance of going to heaven on those terms."

The barber was astonished. "Not when I've done my best?" he protested.

"Look here," said the Bishop, "suppose another customer came in and sat in this vacant chair next to mine and said he wanted a haircut. And suppose I said to you, 'Here, give me the scissors and the comb and I'll cut this fellow's hair,' what would happen?"

"Pooh, you'd make an awful mess of it, sir!"

"Yes, but I would do my best." The Bishop echoed the barber's last words, but the latter protested: "Well, sir, the more you did, the worse it would get!"

"Exactly," said the Bishop, "for I know nothing about it. But suppose, Mr. Barber, you could give me your experience and could somehow put your skill into my fingers! What then?"

"Why, then, sir, you could cut his hair as well as I could do it myself."

"Now," said the Bishop, "that's how I live the Christian life." The hair-cut was finished now, and producing his New Testament the Bishop read from Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

"You see, I don't 'do my best': I give Him myself; my hands to work with, my eyes to see with, my lips to speak with, my mind to think with. That's the Christian life, to have Christ living in us."

The barber was silent a moment. Then he said: "I'd like to be that sort of a Christian, sir."

"Do you really mean it?"

"I do, sir!"

"Then will you kneel down here with me and ask the Lord Jesus Christ to come into your life and do His best in you, for He loves you and gave Himself for you."

They knelt together and the barber 'received Him.'

"Years have passed since then," said the Bishop, as he concluded the story; "and many and many a time when in the neighborhood of Victoria Station have I gone into that barber's shop and had a chat with the man who has been living a happy and consistent Christian life by the power of the indwelling Spirit of Christ, the 'doing his best' by depending on Him who effectually worketh in them that believe on His Name."

An incident in the life of Bishop Taylor Smith as recorded in The Christian.

Chicago Mission, Chicago, Illinois

"I am come to send fire (brands) on the earth." Luke 12:49.

These words burn in our hearts as we write this report. We thank God for revival fires which are burning in our city and community. In December, Dr. Bob Cook of Youth for Christ International held meetings in a nearby church. Our congregation, with many others, caught the fire, and some of our Sunday School responded to an invitation here during the Sunday School period. Some girls knelt in their class and gave their hearts to Christ. We still feel the impact of these meetings in our heart and midst.

Visitors and Speakers were among the following: Miss Fu Tung Liu, former student at Messiah College, Clarence Sakimura and Orville Heisey, both students at Wheaton College, Ed Miller and John M. Zimmerman both of Nappanee, Indiana, and Clarence J. Martin of Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Willms spoke and showed pictures taken in Japan during the visit of our team there last summer. Rev. Paul McBeth's message on the Sunday School in a recent Sunday morning inspired us to new zeal in the work of God and the church. Sister Katie Bollinger and daughter Alma spent several weeks with us in January. Their beautiful Christian lives and helpfulness in the many duties of a Mission home were greatly appreciated. They truly possess the "Dorcas" spirit.

Christmas programs, caroling and Watch Night services were blessed of God, as we spent the last hours of the year and first of the New Year on our knees at the altar of prayer.

Seminar meetings took us to Messiah College for a week in January. These days of fellowship and challenge were the richest things provided by our church for its ministers of whom 157 were present. While we have fellowship with a number of ministers in Chicago, we are the only Brethren in Christ here, and are isolated from fellowship with our own church. This time of retreat gave us a new love and devotion to the cause of Christ and the church. We wish it could be more often than once a year.

During the evenings of the Seminar, I was privileged to share in a week's meetings at Messiah Lighthouse Chapel, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. This, too, was a time of refreshing fellowship with our own brother and fellow workers.

Before returning home, it was our privilege to spend two nights in Washington, D. C., attending the Graham meetings. My soul was stirred and blessed with the atmosphere of revival I could feel. To see numbers of people respond to the altar call so tactfully given, brought a real burden to my own heart that God may move in our capital. Truly God's anointing is on this young man. Let us support him with our constant prayers.

A young German girl, nurse at our local hospital, has been attending our meetings.

She came from Germany a year ago where over 90% of the homes in her community were bombed. While among strangers in a strange country, she found friends in the Mission congregation. Of Lutheran background, she could not understand what we mean by the New Birth. One Sunday afternoon in the room of one of our workers she gave her heart to Christ and gives testimony of God's saving grace.

Last summer as we returned with children from our annual outing, we noticed a well-dressed man at the mission door. We sensed a spiritual hunger, invited him in and though anxious to return to the children, knelt in prayer. A call in the home found a Christian wife, burdened for her husband. Last Sunday evening this man knelt at our altar. His wife phoned us that victory had come in their home.

One Sunday evening a nicely-dressed woman under the influence of alcohol came into the service. She raised her hand for prayer and was dealt with by the sisters in the prayer room. Hers was a story of sin, separation from her children and husband. We were all touched as she herself read the story from John 8 of the woman taken in adultery. Later she came to the mission door. We feel seed was sown in her heart.

Since our last report, we have painted a new sign on the north brick wall of the mission building, size 18 feet square. "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." This sign with its powerful message easily read by all, makes the building more attractive than the bare brick wall.

It was our privilege in January to share in a missionary convention sponsored by the National Holiness Missionary Society. In three services missionaries from Columbia, South America, India, and Honduras spoke to our people.

Sister Alice Albright spent several weeks recently at her home in Oklahoma, where her parents celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. As a mission family, we thank God that our needs have been supplied. We ask prayers for special meetings as Bishop Henry Hostetter plans to come to us in March. We thank all for their interest and prayers.

Life Line Gospel Mission, San Francisco, California

"I have begun to give . . . begin to possess." Deuteronomy 2:31.

At the beginning of this quarter we were just in the midst of decorating the mission home and remodeling and decorating a small apartment for renting. Brother Paulus took off from his regular work in order to complete this work. With the heavy rains of the past weeks we have been indeed thankful that the new roof is on the mission home. We wish to express special thanks to you who have helped to meet this extra expense.

November 10 Bishop Wagaman came to us for a week's meeting and to be in charge of the communion service held Sunday afternoon, November 18. Being a former mission worker during the early years of this work he was able to recall many experiences and individuals helped through the ministry here and to contact a number of earlier acquaintances. Besides his spiritual ministry he did some painting in the mission home. Our group were happy that he remained with us for our annual Thanksgiving dinner.

Mary Willms and Carol Hershey arrived late Tuesday evening, November 6, from Upland to meet Peter Willms who arrived the following morning from Japan. We felt privileged to be the first to hear about his experiences of witnessing for Jesus in Japan.

The first part of October, Sister Davidson went to Upland to visit her aunt Fannie Davidson and to enjoy the Youth Conference at Thousand Pines. Thanksgiving evening, Sister Edith Yoder and Janna Goins journeyed to Upland for a similar privilege. We thoroughly enjoyed attending the Bible Conference as well as seeing friends and relatives.

During this quarter several of our number have been hospitalized. Sister Annie Wingert and Mrs. Ortiz underwent major operations. Brother Wolpert was in San Francisco hospital twice and at present Brother Egling is in hospital recovering from pneumonia. Mrs. Pruett, the mother of seven small children, was in hospital for sometime. We were glad to help the father of this family by doing washings, mending, and taking the baby for medical care during the mother's illness.

Among those we have prayed for at the mission altar was Brother Jones, a colored man, who came into the hall January 1 near the close of the service. He was converted and had united with the church a number of years ago. For some time he has been in a backslidden state and the Christian brethren here have carried a deep concern for his soul. He said he was so troubled he couldn't stay away any longer. The Lord restored the joy of salvation to his heart that evening.

The Christmas season was a busy, but joyous period. We wish to use this opportunity to express thanks and appreciation to those who sent cards and gifts to us. Sunday afternoon, December 16, the mission Sunday School children gave their Christmas program and then Sunday morning, December 23, the Birch Street Sunday School presented their program to the parents and friends who gathered. Christmas Eve we joined the Peniel Mission workers, and a young couple who took their car, in caroling especially to a number of shut-in folk. The season was climaxed with the Christians gathering for the annual Christmas dinner in the mission home.

Since New Year's Eve came on Monday evening, we were able attend the entire watch night service at the Peniel Mission Hall. Because of the electric light trouble the forepart of the service was conducted by candle light, singing songs that the congregation were able to sing from memory. Brother J. S. Martin from Berkley brought the message for the first service and then after a period of refreshments and fellowship, Brother Harold Paulus gave the concluding message. He closed the service by having the group gather around the altar to pray as the old year ended and the new year began.

We want to close this report with thanksgiving and praise to our prayer-hearing and prayer-answering Saviour. We are confident that God has begun to give and now we should begin to possess. We covet your earnest prayers for a number of men who are seeking God at the Mission altar.

Welland Mission, Welland, Ontario

We are indeed thankful to God for His help and blessing throughout another year that has so soon become history; for the souls that have been saved and sanctified and those in whom spiritual growth is evident. The overall picture of the work is quite encouraging. Our Sunday School is continuing to grow. Some outside folks for whom we have been praying, have come out to services. We feel we are on the threshold of a revival.

We opened our Week Day Bible Class for boys and girls after school, again this year, Thursday, October 4. Our largest attendance was 27. God has been definitely blessing our work among the children. A little girl on our street, whose mother told me she couldn't come to our Sunday School because we teach it's wrong to go to the movies, is among our most faithful attendants. There were four boys who created serious discipline problems. We made it a subject of prayer and God worked. There was a very marked meekness in one boy's attitude the next week. Fourteen of the children responded to an invitation to consecrate their lives to God.

God has again blessed our home visitation with saving and sanctifying souls. October 25 and November 8 were red letter days. To see hungry burdened hearts transformed by the grace and power of God in an hour's time is thrilling.

Our Tuesday evening cottage prayer meetings have been a real spiritual blessing. One definite result was a telephone call the next day requesting a visit as they wanted to talk over some things. What we found was a hungry soul. She said the Lord showed her the trouble was in herself and not others as she had told us before. Praying was easy and we had a little camp meeting in that home with this daughter and her aged father. We dealt individually with each of these souls as the Spirit directed. As she prayed through the blessing fell and we were all refreshed by the dew of heaven seeing a soul being born again and becoming a new creature in Christ Jesus. We have been visiting this home for several years and light has broken through. Weeks later one of our members visited in this home and he said he had never seen such a marked change in an individual before.

Brother Roy Sider was our guest speaker for our Rally Ray October 7. Sister Nettie Weaver of Cheapside read for us in the Sunday School and Young People's Programs. It was a very rainy day and our attendance was only half of the anticipated number, but God's blessing was on the service and a number of children responded with raised hands to Brother Sider's invitation.

October 8 we enjoyed having the Houghton Mission workers eat their Thanksgiving dinner with us. The Sixth Line prayer meeting group sent us a special donation for a Thanksgiving dinner so we bought our first turkey and other rare dainties for the occasion.

We had the privilege of having three returned missionaries with us this quarter. On October 14 Martha Kauffman and Mary Kreider gave us very interesting accounts of their work in Africa. On December 2 Anna Steckley gave us an interesting account of her years in India. May God continue to bless and use each of them for the advancement of His kingdom.

October 21 we had a special talk to the children in Sunday School and God opened their hearts to His invitation. Nineteen prayed individually and professed to be saved.

December 2 Bishop Gilmore was with us for our second reception service this year when Brother John Hyatt and Sister Ethel Byer were received into church fellowship.

December 21 the Sunday School children gave a Christmas program. The attendance was good despite bad weather. We were happy to have parents attend this program; their first time to our Mission.

We made 152 home and hospital visits, served 157 meals and entertained 47 overnight guests.

Brother Dale Ulery will be with us in our revival effort in March. We solicit your prayer support. God is working.

Christian Fellowship Mission, Massillon, Ohio

It is with grateful hearts that we give another report of the work here at Massillon. God has again stretched forth his hand, and gotten Himself glorious victory over the devil and his forces. Faith knows no defeat and in the name of King Jesus we are marching forward. Glory to God!

There have been some real victories in healing. Requests for prayer come in almost every day by phone or letter. Some come personally. We had one phone call from 75 miles away. A number of anointed handkerchiefs have been sent out. At least two wrote back and said they were healed. We prayed for a man in the hospital that was afraid he would not live till morning. In three days he went home. We prayed for another man that was so low that he could barely speak above a whisper. This was on Wednesday and by the following Sunday he was seen in a tabernacle meeting testifying to his healing with a loud voice and demonstrated by jumping. However, this man did not obey the Lord as he promised me that he would. He got his sickness back, almost died and is not out of danger yet. Our son, Eli, Jr., was sick for a few days. He called for Brother Oakes (our steward) and us to come and pray for him at noon. After anointing and prayer, he slept all afternoon and that night and went to work next morning. Before prayer he couldn't sleep or eat. Yes, God still answers the simple prayer of faith. We could mention more. We wonder sometimes why God saw fit to bestow upon us such wonderful blessings. To Him goes all the glory.

We had a wonderful time of refreshing in our fall revival. Bishop E. J. Swalm was with us from December 2 to December 16. The attendance was hindered somewhat by cold weather, but we still had a very good meeting. Twenty or more souls bowed at the altar of prayer. God still gives victory to those that are willing to pay the price.

A continuous revival has broken out at one of our out-stations, Uniontown, where Lloyd Hostetler is the pastor. As a result, two young men and their wives, an old couple over 70 years old, a mother and daughter from another family have been saved, baptized and joined church in the recent past. Both of the young couples have children. One of these young men cancelled his life insurance and gave the money to the church building fund. You need not wonder that these people get blessed and bring others into the church. Did you ever hear of any one getting blessed for taking out life insurance?

Our goal for 1952 is more souls. If the Lord tarries we hope to make this the greatest year of the history of the mission. Will you continue to pray for us.

Stowe Mission, Stowe, Pa.

It has been some time since we have recorded a report outside our quarterly bulletin. First we want to say, "The blessing of the Lord it maketh rich . . ." The work here has been blessed of the Lord. We are happy to have a fine increase this past year of an average attendance in our Sunday School. In 1950 the average attendance figured 78 while in 1951 it stands at 90. With the increase comes greater responsibility and challenge.

During the holiday season the members of the congregation, in keeping with past custom, gave to the poor ten food baskets and six fruit baskets. It is a thrill to follow up the gifts and find how happy these homes have been made. It is with joy and thanksgiving that we are able to say that our church indebtedness is becoming less. The Home Mission Board received permission through General Conference of 1951 for us to solicit through our Sunday Schools or Churches. As a result about 30% of the letters sent out have been responded to as per date of December 31. Others are planning response in the near future. We appreciate this wonderful spirit toward Home Mission Work and the lift we are receiving in respect to our indebtedness. Our books show to date as of December 31, 1951, the amount of $7100 yet to be paid. However, more response has come in since.

On February 3 Brother John Rosenberry will be with us in revival services. We ask your prayers as there are unsaved couples, husbands, and children that must be brought in to the fold.

Our Love Feast in October was a time of blessing. Bishop Ginder officiated with Bishop Jacob Bowers, Elder Irvin Tyson, and the Pastor assisting. Elder Eber Dourte, a member of the Peace Committee, presented a challenge to us as we thought in terms of living this testimony. The Gospel team of Messiah College gave us an impressive service in our Young People's Meeting in November. During the meeting, Sister Edna Switzer told of her call to Mission work in Africa. Brother Frank Kipe, who is also looking forward to Mission work, spoke to us in December when a singing group of young people were our guests.

Toronto Mission, Ontario

It is with a great deal of joy that we humbly present this our first report of the new work in the city of Toronto.

At the Ontario Joint Council of 1950 a committee was appointed to look for a location where a work could be started in this city. Then in September, 1951, God definitely led the committee in finding the present location. The church had formerly been owned by the Nazarene people. It is a frame building, will seat approximately 150, has a basement, good furnace and wash rooms.

November 20, a group of willing workers from the Markham district came well equipped to clean the church. At noon the sisters provided a scrumptious lunch which was enjoyed by all.

A venetian blind fund was started by Brother Paul McBeth while visiting our Sunday School in October. The blinds were installed December 21. This has made a great improvement in the appearance of the church. We praise the Lord for a church building where we can invite people to worship.

There has been a slow but steady increase in the Sunday School attendance. At the close of 1951 the enrollment was forty-four.

Our visitation work is very interesting. We have been well accepted by the parents of the Sunday School children and also others we have contacted.

Beginning November 25, we have had a Sunday evening service in the form of a young people's meeting. The attendance at these services has far exceeded our expectation. We have had a few cottage prayer meetings.

A Gospel Team from Messiah College rendered a program in the afternoon of November 25.

December 21, the church was well filled for the Christmas program which was presented by the Sunday School.

We appreciate the help of Brother O. L. Heise and daughters. Sister Miriam serves as song leader and Sister Erma as pianist.

We took up residence here in the city on October 25. Our one-room apartment is very comfortable and is in walking distance of the church. We keenly feel the responsibility of this new work but have been conscious of the presence of the Lord at all times. Then too we appreciate the prayers of the church, for we know that a number of folk are back of us in prayer.

Farris Mines, Virginia

Almost four and one half months have slipped into the past since we came to Virginia to work in this field. As we think of the days which have passed by so quickly, we say with the Psalmist, "Teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

When the last report was written for the Visitor we were in the midst of a revival here. Bishop Carl Ulery, from Springfield, Ohio, was the evangelist. The Holy Spirit was faithful in convicting sinners and showing Christians the need of a deeper spiritual life. Five souls came to an altar of prayer and God met their need. Many others received spiritual help and determination while praying around the altar. We trust these souls will continue to obey God as He speaks to them.

Although we did not qualify for an award in the Forward Sunday School contest, because of in complete records for 1950, the Lord gave us an increase in attendance. Comparing the attendance of the third quarter for 1951 with the results of our Forward drive in the fourth quarter, we had an increase of 71% or an average increase of 35 scholars per Sunday.

We realize our responsibility is to teach these scholars the word of God, win them for Christ, develop Christian ideals and character and promote the work of the church. This is our aim.

The way has opened for us to hold religious services in five public schools and one high school. The interest of the scholars is very good and we feel this is a God-given opportunity to teach Jesus to the children and also make profitable contacts for the church here at Farris Mines. The School Board in Virginia encourages Christian education in the public schools. One school principal told his teachers at one of the scheduled teachers' institutes, "No teacher is fit to teach in our public schools unless they are a Christian." Pray for us as we endeavor to sow Gospel seed in these young hearts. Also pray that God will cause the seed to find lodging and spring up and bear fruit unto eternal life.

We thank God for His presence with us in our services here in the little white church. Two ladies were gloriously saved in our regular church services and one was saved in her home. It thrills our souls as we hear them give their glowing testimony of deliverance and victory. The people are hungry for the Gospel and enjoy a warm spiritual feast. As we are babes in the work of ministering the Gospel, pray that God will cause us to grow under the anointing of the Spirit.

North Star Mission, Meath Park, Sask.

We are praising the Lord for His presence with us this past quarter. We are glad for the faithful ones who worship with us but we are burdened for the indifference of so many about us. We are praying that the Lord will bless us with a good revival this year.

Winter came upon us rather abruptly in the early part of the quarter and by the end of December we knew what it is to be in a real winter. Although the ground has been covered with snow most of the quarter we have had very little wind so that our roads are good for travelling by car. There is only one place we have not been able to reach by car. That is to the home of Maurice Moore. For our prayer meeting there, we drove the car as far as Johnsons. Two of them walked with us the last half-mile to the Moore home. It was 20 degrees below zero that night but it was a beautiful night—clear and calm and we enjoyed the walk. We had an opportunity to enjoy the night sky which we usually only glimpse on our way to and from the car. Through all the cold weather, it has been calm most of the time so that we think we would rather have this kind of weather than warmer with a wind. We will know better by the end of March no doubt.

The garden was good, especially the potato yield. What we lacked in vegetables grown in this part of the country our neighbours have kindly supplied.

You will notice in the expenditures that there is rather a large tax arrears. There had been a mistake or misunderstanding in the bills sent us for tax on the mission home property. This has just been clarified by the local tax office so that we found it necessary to pay this amount.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jones have returned to their home so that we can look forward to having them in our services and community once more. Sister Logan was at her home a few days before she left for British Columbia and California.

During the winter months, North Star Mission has very few visitors, but we can report a few. Mrs. Heise's sister, Mrs. Leo Bearss and family, Ridgeway, Ontario, were here a few days. Brother Garman, Kindersley, was also here for a prayer meeting in Paddockwood and a few days' visit.

The services have been well attended except for some of the real cold Sundays. But even then we have the faithful few. Two little girls walk alone two miles and more. They come even when it is 30 degrees below zero or colder. They both have Catholic background. Please pray for them that they might be able to take the gospel into their homes. At Candle Lake the attendance consists largely of mothers and children. However, on Christmas Sunday the fathers came also. Most of the fathers are away from their homes during the winter trapping but had come home for Christmas.

Messiah Lighthouse Chapel, Harrisburg, Pa.

The New Year brought blessings of revival time to Messiah Lighthouse Chapel. Bishop Jesse F. Lady of Upland, California, served as evangelist for the first week. His clear exposition of Bible truths provided a rich diet of spiritual meat for our people. Because he was unable to serve the second week, we were fortunate to obtain the ministry of Rev. Carl J. Carlson, of Chicago, brother of the Pastor, who served here last winter. A veteran of many years service in city mission work, his ministry was marked by warm spiritual passion and broad human sympathies.

A fine spirit prevailed in the entire meeting. A number of our Sunday School youth attended quite regularly. Several outstanding victories were achieved in these two weeks. Besides others who made decisions, two mothers of our Cradle Roll Department, whose children are in our Sunday School, were saved. It was their first response to the Gospel Call. We are praising God for the visible fruits of these meetings while we continue to pray and to labor for the harvesting of further fruitage.

A number outside of our local congregation contributed musically to the revival meetings. Among them were Royce Saltzman, Avis Brumbaugh, Janet Musser, Grace Herr, Titus Wingerd, Carl Wolgemuth, Helen Collins. We appreciated their assistance so much.

Christmas was accompanied by many seasonal activities associated with Christian service in a city mission. Christmas Sunday morning the annual Sunday School program was given to an appreciative audience. On that same evening, a service of song and message made deep impression and several requested prayer.

On the preceding Sunday evening, the Gospel Team of Messiah College gave a program describing Christmas in other lands. Hannah Kohnert spoke for Germany, and Taizo Tanimoto spoke for Japan.

Carol singing was arranged for our people on December 23, after the Chapel services. Paul Martin, Jr., of Mt. Joy, furnished excellent transportation for the Mission Group by providing a school bus equipped with a PA system. The Mission appreciates this faithful and generous courtesy of Brother Martin, enabling our people to minister to "shut-ins."

Some Christmas baskets were distributed to needy homes, and arrangements made to supply the needs of others. A needy family on our Cradle Roll was adopted by the freshman college class of Messiah College for Christmas giving, instead of their customary gift exchange. This commendable self-sacrificing act of the youth brought blessing and cheer to the family contacted. The night of this gift-giving will long be remembered. Outside it was a night of very heavy rainfall. While in this needy home there fell not "showers of blessings" but a literal downpour of material kindnesses. God bless all those college young people who thus shared in this manner of touching lives for eternity.

Church Board Meetings nearby and the Ministers' Seminar at Grantham brought various guests into our revival meetings and the Mission Home. Among these were E. J. Swalm, H. S. Miller, Orla Heise, Harvey Hoke, Monroe Book, Henry G. Brubaker, Samuel Wolgemuth, Jesse R. Steckley, Alvin Winger, Peter Wiebe, George Sheffer, Charles Baker, Roy Nigh, Carl Stump and Paul Book. Their visits were appreciated.

Also we enjoyed a visit with Brother and Sister Gary Lyons of Michigan, whose daughter Beulah is on our staff. Accompanying them were Rozella and Loa Lyons, and also Sister Emmaline Lyons. Recently, our nephew, Paul Carlson, visited the Mission, and shared in two meetings, in the ministry of music.

Over the span of another quarter we have experienced the blessings of God's care. For the many kindnesses of the Lord's people toward this Mission Home and this field of labor, we express appreciation. Our own local congregation do splendidly. We know the Lord will reward each and every one.

Saxton, Pa.

On November 2 Sister Winger with the writer were able to fill our appointment by moving into an apartment at Saxton. As we have entered the work we find lots to do. This a very needy field among a friendly people.

Brother Emanuel Rohrer of Ohio laboured faithfully in a three weeks revival the last of November resulting in souls being saved, and sanctified, and the work in general was revived. Brother Rohrer's efforts were much appreciated as one can gather by the very worthy offerings and love offerings given as recorded in this report.

There appears to be a special opening and need for more work in getting children to the Sunday School, who do not attend anywhere. Then there are the sick, aged, discouraged, and needy to visit. So much to do, and so few to do it, and how can qualified, talented, young men who claim to be saved and sanctified go along singing, "Anywhere with Jesus I can Safely Go" and then not move out, filling the depleted ranks, where men are so sorely needed in our worthy Home Mission Stations. We need men today praying as Isaiah did for cleansing, then surrendered saying, "Here am I; send me." Come, let us work while it is day.

—W. O. Winger.

Kentucky Mission Report

General

The Kentucky Mission family came to the close of 1951 with the blessing of God on our souls, realizing that the manifold tests and severe trials of our faith and strength during the past year have drawn us much closer to God, and that the temptations which Satan hurled our way to cause us to stumble, really became stepping stones which stimulated growth and progress in our Christian walk. The crises of the present time demand of us all that we either "grow up" or "give up". By the help of the Lord, we determine to continue growing.

We are encouraged as we note marks of spiritual deepening among the church members here in Adair County. God has been marvelously answering prayer in behalf of needs both spiritual and physical, all around us.

We often thank God for the continued harmony of the workers both within the separate stations and among the entire group. Harmony in these days of confusion, unrest, and friction, does not just happen. It comes as a result of diligent effort in that direction.

Workers from all three missions meet once a month for meditation, prayer and business. These sessions are always times of rich spiritual fellowship and challenge.

Our only unfailing resource is God. Continue to pray with us that we as His witnesses will continue to abide under the anointing of the Holy Ghost, and that we will not fail to wait upon Him as we busily do His work amidst the rush and pressure of responsibilities.

—Helen M. Dohner.

October 12. Brother Dohner with Brother Daniel Hoover leave at noon for Cincinnati prayer meeting that night. Return home following service. Catch a few hours sleep before going to Millerfields love feast.

October 13. Soul-stirring, rich fellowship of the saints at Millerfields love feast. Unusual liberty and warmth in the testimony meeting of the afternoon.

October 14. Excellent Rally Ray programs at Fairview and Millerfields. Good attendance at both places. Brother Paul Hess gives challenging message to young people at Fairview in the evening service.

October 16. Paul Hess family and Elizabeth take dinner with us today. Appreciate the generous donation of groceries they brought.

October 19. Spent the day visiting. Walked three and a half miles over hills and through hollers, contacting six homes. Prayed for soul and body needs.

October 26. Brother Dohner leaves on noon bus for two revivals in Pennsylvania. He and Sister Dohner answer a request for an anointing service in a home a mile and a half from here at the "eleventh hour".

October 28. Young people's class at Fairview under Sister Dohner's direction dramatize story of Abraham in Sunday School this afternoon.

November 4. Brother Warren Sherman "fills in" at Fairview and Millerfields in Brother Dohner's absence. Enjoyed Sister Sherman and children's contribution in song in afternoon Sunday School at Fairview.

November 6. Sister Dohner and I visited in a number of homes today through a down-pouring rain. Time for Millerfields prayer meeting tonight, but because of weather only two were present besides us.

November 7. Visiting again today, this time at other end of county. Mother of home was once a member. Very much dissatisfied with her present church. Manifested a soul hunger.

November 23. Sister Dohner and I leave at noon for Pennsylvania to attend last week of Palmyra meeting and bring Brother Dohner back with us. Sister Curry, an aged member who expects to take up residence at Messiah Homes, goes with us.

December 2. Because of a car shortage on field, Brother Irvin Hoover walks to Millerfields to take care of evening appointment.

December 5. Back home again! We thank God for a safe trip.

December 14. Leave at noon for Cincinnati prayer meeting. Ruby and Elizabeth go with us and leave from there for Pennsylvania to spend Christmas at home. Roads and weather get worse as we near destination. Attendance small because of bad weather.

December 23. Short Christmas program following Sunday School in the afternoon at Fairview. Young people who have gone to the cities for employment, and service boys, attend services over the Holidays.

December 25. The workers who remained in Kentucky plus Daniel Hoover's folks, enjoyed Christmas Day at Ella home. A gray but beautiful Christmas! Thoughtful friends and kin from near and far remembered us with lovely Christmas cards and dinners which helped ease the temptation for homesickness at this "family time" of year.

December 31. Watch-night service at Millerfields. A warm, refreshing season of prayer around the altar as the old year went out richly repaid for the sacrifice of sleep.

—Esther Ebersole.

Garlin Report

Brother and Sister Daniel Hoover and Elizabeth Hess, servants of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints and faithful Brethren in Christ.

We give thanks to God:

For the reception service at Beulah Chapel on October 7 in which Arnold and Rachel Denton renewed their vows with the church and Carol Burton took vows of loyalty. The baptismal service for Carol was the following Sunday.

For the restoration of one soul in the one-week revival at Grassy Springs. We all received spiritual refreshing through the ministry of Brother Hoover and Brother Dale Ulery during that week and especially in the Saturday love feast.

For the fine group of about thirty who met at William McGaha's home a few miles outside Newport November 16. Ruby Clapper and Katie Rosenberger accompanied Brother Hoover to this service. His father, Brother Irvin Hoover, Brother Raymond Paulus and two sons, came from Ohio for this meeting.

For the interested group of twenty-two at Mt. Carmel who gathered December 7 for the first prayer meeting in an unused store building. Mrs. M. L. Holt gave the invitation for this service, and many were the expressions of appreciation. Heavy showers on the outside failed to dampen the atmosphere.

For the testimony of Sister Gladys Feese who through the perplexities of the last months, said that when it is darkest she leans hardest on the Lord. The way she overcome obstacles to attend services should be a challenge to many. December 26, with her four children, moved to Canton, Ohio. They will be missed, but we wish them God's best.

For the way the brethren and sisters and young people have been shouldering responsibility in Sunday School, janitor service, providing Christmas program and treats. This helped to make possible the visit of Elizabeth Hess with her parents December 14-28 which otherwise would not have been suitable at that time.

We have learned of your continued interest through your faithful ministers, Brother Irvin Hoover and Brother Paul Hess whose assistance was valuable not only in the ministry but in manual labor. Brother Hoover spent about thirteen days here and at Fairview during Brother Dohner's absence, besides his other two short visits here.

Guests in our home have been Mrs. O. Wayne Cook and two children, Mrs. Mary Cook, Mrs. Nettie Staugh, Brother and Sister Paul Hess and two children, Brother and Sister Jacob Schock, Brother and Sister Irvin Hoover and Carolyn, Charlotte and Herbert. We enjoyed their fellowship as well as the provisions they provided.

It is our desire that in all things Christ might have the pre-eminence and that those among whom we labor may be presented perfect before Him.

—Elizabeth Hess.

Knifley Report

As we stand on the threshold of another year we feel like saying with the poet, "through many dangers, toils, and snares we have already come. 'Twas grace that brought us safe thus far and grace will lead us home".

October 23, a young woman called for the nurse. It was soon discovered that much of her illness was because of soul trouble. Being a habitual smoker she became quite concerned how this evil was gripping her. Arising at three in the morning she threw her cigarettes in the stove, then testified she found great peace of mind. We are praying she will make a complete surrender. God is dealing with her.

"I'm glad the Lord filled me with his Spirit". This is a phrase often used by some of the members of the Spout Springs area since the revival in that place last fall.

We rejoice with the Feese family for the rapid recovery of Sister Hazel Feese. She has had the second operation successfully and was allowed to spend Christmas day with her family. She has been transferred to the Glasgow Sanatorium for complete recovery. The clinic nurse, Sister Rosenberger, assisted in this operation.

There has been an increase in attendance in the Knifley Sunday School in the last three months. A short period is spent in the opening of each Sunday service for inspirational song service. The Knifley folks like to sing!

Ruby Clapper left after prayer meeting at Newport, December 14, for vacation with home folks, returning with Elizabeth Hess, December 28.

Saturday evening, December 22, the children and young people gave their Christmas program at Gospel Hall.

Brother and Sister Christner and Joseph Lee spent Christmas Day with Melhorns in Pennsylvania and will return after Ministers' Seminar at Grantham.

We solicit prayer for the revival that begins at Knifley January 12. God said His Word would not return void. We are believing His promises.

—Ruby Clapper.
