God has spoken through His children to provide the necessary funds to care for the needs during the past quarter. During our absence from the homeland and while on tour of our fields, the office work of the treasurer was ably managed by Sister Dortha Dohner, and assistance rendered by brethren J. R. Aiken and Dr. Paul G. Lenhart. We wish to express our thanks and gratitude for their helpfulness during this period.

—Carl J. Ulery, Treasurer.

Hunlock Creek Mission, Hunlock Creek, Pa.

The last quarter of 1952 has passed by so rapidly and now again it is time to exchange greetings with you of the "Visitor" family.

The activities of Home Mission work are varied, and space would not permit us to give you a detailed account of all that transpired during the closing months of this year. However, we shall mention the most outstanding events.

On October 2, Mr. William Freeman, a man in the community who had been ill for the past nine months, passed on to his reward. Our little church was filled to capacity the day of the funeral, and we appreciated the opportunity of presenting the claims of Christ to many who otherwise never attend a religious service.

Our annual Harvest Meeting was held on Sunday evening, October 19. This meeting proved a time of blessing to all who attended. Evangelist Densberger from Nescopeck, was with us and brought the message in the morning service the Sunday before Christmas.

Our Sunday School during the past year has shown a considerable increase in attendance. There is also an increased interest on the part of our constituency with regards to the spiritual life of the community. This interest was expressed in a tangible way to a number of widows in our neighborhood during the Christmas season. The annual carol singing was called off this year because of bad weather.

Our "Watch Night" service was a time of much inspiration for our local people. We were privileged to have the Densberger family with us for this service. The solo and trio numbers accompanied by the guitar and piano accordion, as well as their testimony to God's deliverance in their lives, and Brother Densberger's messages proved a great spiritual uplift to all of us.

We are believing God for great things in the year ahead. Please join with us in prayer for many who need God in this corner of His vineyard.

—Marion and Alice Walker.

Toronto Mission, Toronto, Ontario

"The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous and his ears are open unto their prayers." I Peter 3:12.

Many prayers were offered as we entered the "Forward Enlargement Campaign" October 1, provided by the Sunday School Board. Our visiting staff consisted of seven and we were privileged to make 600 calls. We thank God for open doors. Since then our Sunday School has taken on new life. We found it necessary to divide the intermediate class. This gives us six classes. We feel the Sunday School attendance this past quarter has been more regular for which we thank the Lord. Sister Howard Wolgemuth from Pennsylvania brought real blessing to our Sunday School on November 7. Her illustrated message was very impressive and at the close of the service three girls came forward and accepted Christ.

Friday evening, October 17, Brother Arthur Heise from North Star Mission, Saskatchewan, gave an interesting account of the work there. Our prayer is that the Lord will bless the new adventure at Paddockwood.

Bishop E. J. Swalm was with us December 15. We enjoyed seeing the pictures and hearing of his trip to Europe and the Holy Land.

As our pastor comes only every second Sunday we appreciate the following who ministered to us this past quarter: Elder A. Vannatter, Houghton Mission, Brother Bruce Winger, Markham, Houghton Center Young People and Brother Basil Long, Brother Harvey Sider, Cheapside, Brother William Vanderbent, Markham, Heise Hill Chorus, directed by Elder J. R. Steckley.

At the Sunday School Christmas Program our hearts were thrilled to see the church well filled with children and their parents.

We appreciate the following who visited Toronto Mission the past quarter: Bishop and Sister Henry Ginder, Bro. and Sr. Jesse Lehman, Elder and Sr. Wm. Hoke, Bishop and Sr. Edward Gilmore.

—Myrtle and Ruth Steckley.

Houghton Mission, Tillsonburg, Ontario

The fall Love Feast was the first important event of this quarter. We enjoyed Christian fellowship with one another and with our Lord. Bishop Gilmore's Sunday morning message on "Worldliness" was timely and appreciated.

We were favored with two missionary services when Brother Arthur Heise told interestingly of the work at North Star Mission in Saskatchewan; while Brother and Sister William Hoke enlightened us by word and pictures about the Indian work. Both services were held at the Houghton Center church with good attendance by the local people as well as the Frogmore group.

Brother Samuel Lady came to us November 17 to share in the harvest of souls in an eight night meeting. The attendance and interest were especially good. Brother Lady was impressed with the number of unsaved people in the audience night after night and directed his messages mainly to them. The Holy Spirit honored the Word in the salvation of souls. We especially thank God for the mother who yielded to Him who has evidenced soul hunger for several years and has been often in our prayers. Her husband, although formerly rough and unapproachable, has become much interested in religion and gave the evangelist these encouraging words, "I want you to know, I want to get saved." Their fourteen-year-old son is ready to get saved "as soon as Dad does." In visitation we found a young mother who was very open hearted and anxious to get saved. Her husband objected to her coming to the meeting or getting saved. We were happy since to see the entire family out to the Christmas program. These families are ever on our prayer list. Would you like to pray for them too?

Our community is favored in having four of our church young people from other districts teaching in our local schools. These teachers, Lester and Mary Fretz, Glenna Moore, and John Sider are not only providing a Christian atmosphere for their school pupils but are an inspiration in our prayer meetings and other services. We thank God for sending them our way.

We praise the Lord for His presence with us and His workings among our people. We are glad to report that the two men who were saved early in the fall as related in a former report, are progressing well in the things of the Lord. Their regular testimonies are thrilling. We trust God will continue to save souls here and we purpose to be instruments He can use as He sees fit.

Another quarter is in history and we are glad to report that God has been with us. We do praise the Lord for His presence in our midst. He is speaking to souls although we would like to see greater moves made toward the Lord. We are grateful for the co-operation of the dear one's here.

We found ourselves very busily engaged this past quarter with some repair work which was requested by our overseer which was in great need, such as putting in a new water system and also some added wiring.

In October we were privileged to have Brother Arthur Heise with us. He gave us a report of the work of the North Star Mission which we did appreciate.

We were presented with a Bulletin Board for the Mission Hall by Mr. W. R. House of Stevensville.

The Sunday School gave their Christmas program on Saturday evening, December 20. We had the Sider Trio from Wainfleet to sing for us and Bishop Edward Gilmore was our guest speaker.

Visitors from the States were as follows: Bro. W. K. Shirk and daughter and husband, Sr. Merl Keck from Indiana; Bro. and Sr. Mark VanderVeer and daughters, Bro. and Sr. Max Brown and family, Bro. and Sr. A. G. Carlson and sons, Bro. and Sr. Martin VanderVeer, Bro. and Sr. Edward Finley, Bro. and Sr. Wayne Finley from Michigan; Sr. Esther Henry and Sr. Stella Earhart from Pennsylvania.

Would you remember us in your prayers here at the Mission as we enter into the New Year that we might be able to help many souls into the Kingdom of God.

Buffalo Mission, Buffalo, New York

"And Jesus went forth and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and He healed their sick." (Matt. 14:14).

Thus is recorded the striking words of the first gospel concerning Jesus and His works. We too are mindful of this that the multitudes of our day also need Jesus and His compassion; although today given through human instrumentality. We are endeavoring to so teach and preach the Lord Jesus that there will be those who will understand His compassion and also be healed.

During the past three months our activities have centered along these lines. Brother Walter Winger gave us two weeks of evangelistic preaching. His ministry of preaching and visitation was greatly appreciated. Particularly worthy of note was his address to the children in our local public school. Brother Arthur Heise of Paddockwood, Saskatchewan, was with us the first evening of the revival service which he shared with Brother Winger. Brother William Hoke with picture and word portrayed the mission work of India. The Christmas program was given on Christmas Sunday evening. The chapel was packed out.

The regular activities of the mission center around the Sunday School, two prayer meetings weekly, Religious Instruction on Monday p.m., two preaching services weekly, and women's missionary and prayer groups, and girls' club work.

Forty-five children come to the mission chapel every Monday afternoon for religious instruction. The state of New York allows one hour every week for this purpose. The Sunday School attendance is often in the nineties. We are trying to maintain an intensive campaign of evangelism and visitation. Christ's Crusaders on alternate Sunday evenings are adding to the interest of the services by the use of local talent and by bringing in outside talent.

At an early date we expect to start a Boy's Club, the aim of which will be to give our boys a healthy and zestful recreational program that ties in with the church.

All in all we feel that the possibilities are tremendous but we wrestle not against flesh and blood but against the prince of the darkness of this world. Prevailing prayer is our greatest need. Will you pray with us and for us?

Your help in a financial way has been liberal and we are deeply appreciative of all your gifts.

For your support by prayer and finances we again say, thank you.

Saxton Mission, Saxton, Pa.

"Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." Zechariah 4:6. It is with the assurance that this promise holds true today, even as in the days of Zerubbabel, that we submit the final 1952 report from Saxton. In a brief resume of the quarter's activities we wish to include:

1. Revival and Refreshing.

Revival began October 5th. Evangelist Harold Paulus came with burden for souls and passion to preach the whole counsel of God. Results were not spectacular but we believe they are lasting. One young convert has been making remarkable spiritual growth since revival. As he leaves for Trade School in Lancaster in January we pray that he may continue to be zealous for the Lord.

Fall Love Feast — October 25th (last week-end of revival). Goodly number attended; wonderful spirit of love and fellowship. Visiting ministers: Brethren Albert Engle, Harold Paulus and Marlin Ressler, now pastor at Sherman's Valley.

Thanksgiving Service was very full and very rich. Brother Engle was with us again, also Brother Ross Morningstar. Service included "thanks-giving" by the congregation, message by Brother Engle, dedication of children and reception of members. Mary Alice Slagenweit and Joanna Ruth Ketner were dedicated to the Lord by their parents, Brother and Sister Andrew Slagenweit and Brother and Sister David Ketner. Two young people Lillian Edwards and James Bair were received into church fellowship.

2. Visitation and Visitors.

Realizing the importance of contacting folks in their homes and in their every day living we've endeavored to spend more time in visiting this quarter. In this way it is possible to get closer to the people and better understand their needs and problems.

Saxton has welcomed a number of visitors in the last few months. Included are Sisters Mary Sentz, Gladys Shantz, and Marjorie Heise from Lancaster County, Brother and Sister Orville Heise, Dallas Center, Iowa, Mary Stoner formerly a worker here, Erma Heise, Jean and Walter Brillinger and Ray Wideman from Gormley, Ontario. Thanksgiving guests were Sister Naomi Lady, Grantham, and Dorothy Jean McCleaf, Fairfield, Pa.

Our pastor, Brother Slagenweit and his family spent Christmas in Oklahoma and we especially appreciate those who assisted in the services here during his absence: Brother and Sister Walter Winger, Brother and Sister Mervin Brubaker, Sister Iola Dixon and Brethren Robert Walker and Marlin Ressler.

3. Other Features.

Just recently a personal contact with one of the young people has resulted in his conversion.

Following prayer meeting on Christmas Eve quite a number shared in the blessing of singing carols and delivering six Christmas baskets to the needy.

Early in December, a flush toilet was installed in the mission basement.

4. Donations.

We are grateful to the Lord for our physical needs during this quarter. The Saxton people have given generously and we deeply appreciate it. Would also like to acknowledge the following contributions: Sunshine Band, Mt. Joy, kerosene heater; Sr. Naomi Lady, towel rod; Walter Brillinger and Ray Wideman, car repairs; Markham Sewing Circles, $50.00 toward toilet, quilts and towels; friends from Markham congregation, food and household supplies; Bro. and Sr. Mervin Brubaker, canned goods; Bro. and Sr. Walter Winger, meat and ice cream; Sr. Edna Lehman, canned fruit and soap.

Farris Mines, Virginia

From Virginia, we extend Christian greetings to you, the readers of the Evangelical Visitor. Another quarter has slipped by and as we look back we surely must say that God has held our hand. This was His promise to us in Isaiah 41:13.

Our Rally Day service for the Sunday School was held the first Sunday in November. Our guests were Misses Anna Hess and Pauline Zarfoss formerly from Pennsylvania, but they are now living at Austinsville, Virginia. They give religious education in the public schools and have been living in this State for almost 13 years. They gave an object lesson and flannelgraph talk to the Sunday School, which was very interesting. There were two families in the community whose children were not attending any Sunday School. These children came for Rally Day and are now regular scholars. Our Sunday School attendance has picked up to 70-80 for which we are very thankful. Over half of this number are young people and children.

On November 26 we had a community Thanksgiving Service here at the church. The folk were encouraged to bring food and household supplies, to be placed around the altar. They responded very well, with the value of the produce estimated at $30. A committee of three ladies, each representing a different denomination, distributed the "Thank-Offering" to needy families. Rev. C. J. Peyton, Pastor of the Pentecostal Holiness Church of Pulaski, Va., was our guest speaker. He is director of the radio program "Echoes of Faith" over our local station.

We are happy to tell you we have been able to shorten our bus route from a twenty mile round trip to an approximate five mile trip. This was made possible by the donation of a car by Brother Paul Martin. The Sylvatus worshipers are now able to provide their own transportation to services. This is a great help to us in a financial way, as the bus had to cross a mountain and ford two creeks. We are now better able to concentrate our efforts on our local people.

The Christmas season was a happy time here. After a short talk on the real meaning of Christmas, we had our exchange of gifts, also the Sunday School treat was given in the morning Sunday School session, December 21. It was a thrill to see these eager children receiving their gifts. Sunday night we had our Christmas program, attended by about 225 people. The highlight of the program was a play "Why Christmas," showing how four different types of families look at Christmas. One was a quarreling family, another a selfish family, third a family too busy to think of others, and fourth a consecrated family who spent the holidays helping needy folk and singing Christmas carols. The skeptical "Old Man" in the play, viewed each family scene and was convinced by the fourth that after all he too needed to be a Christian. The question left to the audience was, "Which family does your home represent?"

Christmas Eve we had Prayer Meeting at 7:00 p.m. and a wedding here at the parsonage at 8:00 o'clock. Later that evening we took a group of young people and some parents caroling here in our community.

As most of 1953 lies before us untouched, we feel anew our dependence upon God. We as workers want to take Isaiah 41:10 with us throughout the year. We are commanded, "Fear thou not," and then the promise comes, "for I am with thee. Be not dismayed, for I am thy God. I will strengthen thee, yea I will help thee, yea I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."

Bethel Mission, Sylvatus, Va.

"We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us." II Cor. 4:7.

This has been a most encouraging promise again during the last few months when the unfinished work of the Kingdom has continued to make its demands and present its challenging opportunities! How wonderful to know that we are "co-laborers with God."

The new church which was dedicated on October 6, has been a great asset to the work here by providing a more beautiful, adequate, and comfortable place of worship. The people of the community have helped to show their appreciation for the church by filling it on several occasions.

The two weeks of special revival effort immediately following the dedication were also an encouragement and boost to the work. Rev. Graybill Wolgemuth served as the evangelist. A large number of community people attended the services, many of them in response to invitations given by others. Over 120 reported invitations were given and over 60 people responded to these specific invitations by attending the revival. One man and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jennings, had the record of giving the most invitations and also having the most responses.

On the night of October 8, Bishop H. H. Brubaker met with us and presented a missionary report and challenge, helping us to lift our eyes to needy fields elsewhere.

The Bethel mission group presented a children's program and Christmas pageant on Tuesday night, December 23. The teenagers class helped to advertise the program by making attractive posters, which were placed in the stores of the community. Others gave of their help in various ways, and all enjoyed working together to present the beautiful story of Christ's birth. The response of many friends and neighbors was gratifying as they filled the church for this occasion.

The Bethel building program is continuing to go forward. As was mentioned in the last report to the Visitor, the next project here was to move the old church building beside the new church and remodel it into a parsonage. Through the kind help of Paul Martin and several of his men, the church was moved in December to its new location. At present the remodeling program is in "full swing." We express our great appreciation to the men from Pennsylvania who have come and are coming to help in the completion of the building.

The generosity of many friends who have shared in a financial way has also been much appreciated. Additional aid will be needed to complete the project but we are trusting the Lord to direct in securing the needed finances.

During the month of November a hand-dug well was completed on the church grounds. This will provide a good water supply for the parsonage.

We want to again thank the many friends who have shared in furnishing supplies for the mission home. Our food store was increased by Mr. and Mrs. John Burkholder, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wingert, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wingert, Mr. and Mrs. P. Hostetter, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Graybill Wolgemuth and friends, Rev. and Mrs. John Schock, Mr. Harold Eckert, Rev. and Mrs. Denny Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slate, and the young married people's class of the Antrim congregation. Many other kind neighbors and friends aided in this way through a surprise shower given for us by Mrs. Paul Jennings.

The New Guilford and Mt. Pleasant sewing circles furnished several quilts and comforts for the mission home. Mr. Richard Slate, Mr. Eber Hess, and Mr. Orvin White each furnished gas for the car. Certainly the Lord is faithful in supplying all the needs of His people and we praise Him for His great goodness!

San Francisco Mission, San Francisco, Cal.

The Gospel message has been going out over the air at our nightly street meetings, and while we do not have crowds standing around listening, yet it is gratifying to know how many have come into the hall as a result of hearing the singing and testimony on the street corner. And many of these have found their way to the altar of prayer and received definite help.

During the last three months there was a total attendance in the hall of 2,282, and of these 92 knelt at the altar for prayer. Only those who are definitely dealt with are counted, for there are those few who are not serious enough to really pray and seek the Lord. But those who are dealt with get the Gospel and the way of salvation made so plain to them that they can never say that they were not at the very threshold of the kingdom of God and could have stepped through the door into the family of God. Many take the step and testify to the change in their heart. They are then strongly exhorted to live the life which they have now begun. Whenever possible these men are visited in their room and instructed further and encouraged in the way of the Christian life. Some very happy hours have been spent in this way and it is tremendously encouraging to see the change that has come into their life and also in the appearance of their room.

The work among the children is very encouraging. Our Sunday School on Sunday afternoons is picking up in attendance and interest. The Christmas program given on the Sunday before Christmas was a blessing to everyone, and every seat was taken in the hall. It resulted in several new adult members in the school. One of the bright spots was the Sunday of Decision Day when ten children stepped out to accept Christ as their Saviour. This was during the week when Bishop Lady was with us. His presence and ministry were a real blessing to all.

The usual Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners in the Mission Home were times of real blessing and inspiring fellowship. These are occasions our Mission group will always remember.

At the close of Bishop Lady's week with us we had a baptismal service when a young man who had been converted in the Mission on August 31, was baptized.

Plans were on foot to relocate the Mission, but after spending much time looking around and investigating together with the Home Mission Board representative, we learned that we could continue in the same location. This appeared the thing to do as no suitable location could be found. It was finally arranged that we continue in the same location for another three years. The owner would be glad to sell the building, although he is not advertising. He is asking $50,000. Now that we have arranged to continue in the same location, we are working on some repair and redecorating to make the hall more inviting, and to be able to push the work more vigorously.

God's Love Mission, Detroit, Michigan

With the closing of this quarter also comes the close of another year. Only through faithful and whole-hearted dedication to the will and work of God was this work maintained and any progress made bears evidence to Christ's words when He said, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."

We recall a Sunday morning service in October when God broke in upon us in an unusual way with convicting power during the singing of a special song. Instead of preaching we had an altar service with four young married people seeking God. All of these young people face difficult problems and need our prayers.

Brother Andrew McNiven was our evangelist for two weeks. God used this brother to expand the values of God's eternal truth.

Our Sunday School attendance varies greatly. In the summer vacations hinder and in the winter often sickness keeps many away; however, we are happy to report 142 out for Rally Day.

On December 16th the Wayne County all-day Holiness Meeting was held at our church. God was on the meeting and our souls were freshly touched with Glory from on high.

One of our most faithful and regularly attending young men left the city to work in another place as a conscientious objector. We miss him and his wife from the nightly services but are happy to have them return on week ends.

One of our little Sunday School girls was stricken with rheumatic fever and passed away. Other children of the family still attend Sunday School.

We were happy for the ministry of Brother William Engle and family several services in November during the absence of Brother Hock.

We had a one week pre-Christmas service with Brother M. V. Bass as speaker and a three night service closing the old year with Dr. DeWitt Johnston as speaker.

Our Christmas program was well attended, with approximately 170, on the night of December 21st.

Our greatest responsibility is to publish the good tidings of the Gospel in every way possible while the opportunity still abounds, for days are no darker than they were when Saul made havoc of the church, no worse than when the disciples let him down over a wall in a basket, or when Peter slept in chains between soldiers. The present outlook still offers great opportunities. Let us embrace them.

We gratefully acknowledge the following donations: Mrs. Yeakey, 1 dozen quarts green beans; Bernice Romo, Cake; W. Shirk, canned goods; Bulgriens, canned goods, cabbage, squash; Lloyd French, potatoes; Bishop Henry Schneider, stringed beans, cabbage, carrots, apples, canned goods; Bowleys, oysters; Locke Sewing Circle, Indiana, pears, tomatoes; Siscoes, onions, apples; Frank Vores, canned goods, beets; Brethren in Christ Sewing Circle, Souderton, Pa., Mrs. Raymond Hess, 18 tea towels, 8 bath towels, 2 dresses, 2 shirts, 7 pair overalls, 6 handkerchieves, 1 apron, 4 pillow slips, 2 sheets; George Deihl, lard; Bro. and Sr. Oscar Stump, eggs; Bro. and Sr. Davidson, tomatoe juice; Bro. and Sr. Wagner and Ethel Sherman, fruit, eggs and popcorn.

While I Am On My Knees

Paul Z. Hoornstra

WHILE I am on my knees I realize that I can reach no greater efficiency in the pulpit than I reach in my daily living. I can be no more victorious a preacher than I am a victorious day-by-day Christian.

If I lift myself up toward Heaven in the preaching hour, and force outward indications to resemble piety, only to be defeated in my private heart, I am but stretching myself out of proportion; and that will lead to frustration, and even cynicism sooner or later. Nor does it require outward sin to bring this divergence; just defeat in the heart is sufficient to bring ultimate defeat both to self and to purpose of life.

While I am on my knees, crying for liberty and anointing, I see so clearly that such come to one whose everyday life is anointed. Special unction for the occasion may come and go, but grace to live victoriously must be there always. The pulpit grace is no surer than the daily-living grace which undergirds it. Men do not put marble on top of cheap things, and God does not genuinely anoint in the pulpit those men whom He cannot anoint in daily living.

Search me, O God, and analyze my inner life; see if my daily-living grace is strong. If it is, well. And if it is not, then keep me on my knees until I can go forth conquering and to conquer in Jesus' Name. Amen and amen!—Herald of Holiness.
